North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.
Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c., in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and to this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—this determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1868

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE CONVENTION, YESTERDAY—HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDING.

It will be seen, by reference to our report of the proceedings of the so-called Convention, on yesterday, that the Sentinel was the special object of the ire of the white and negro "truly loyal" individuals in that remarkable body. Several thousand dollars were spent in abusing the Sentinel. We hope that the "patriots" feel better, after having disgorged themselves of such a quantity of black bile and prospectively put so much money in their pockets.

True, the Sentinel was not specifically mentioned in the resolution which was offered, by Mr. Abbott, of Massachusetts, via New Hanover, and adopted by the so called Convention, but it leaked out, in the course of the discussion, that it was the destined victim of their mighty wrath,—it the free Press which they would pay, and its Editors the men whom they would "exterminate," (that was the word used, we understand, by one of the mongrels,) if their power was at all commensurate with their ally and contemptible vindictiveness and spite.

The head and front of our offending, it appears, is that our Reporter draws an "odorous" distinction, as Dogberry would say, in classifying "gentlemen of African descent" as negroes. We recollect that, at the Radical Convention, which assembled in this city, in March last, some foady with a white skin took occasion to express a puritanical anxiety that all distinctions of color should be abolished in enrolling the names of delegates, when Harris (the present negro delegate from this county,) protested against it. He said that "he was not ashamed of his color, and he hoped the gentleman over the way was not ashamed of his!" We are sorry to see that Jim has become ashamed of his color. Perhaps, it is not so surprising that white men, who have gone down to the level of the negro, should be ashamed of theirs!

We have only this to say: That we shall continue to allow our Reporter to make a report of the doings of this august body in his own way, save that we shall see to it that no man, white or black, is misrepresented. If it be a misrepresentation of Harris, Hood, Cuffee Mayo, or any other of the black Radicals, to call them negroes, we shall probably continue to misrepresent them, however much it may offend their sensibilities or those of their white and loving friends and admirers.

If, for this, they choose to exclude our Reporter from the Hall, they can do so.—We shall still have it in our power to furnish our readers with a sketch of their proceedings, and they will stand convicted of a craven fear of the Sentinel and a tyrannical attempt to muzzle an independent press. "They fear the light because their deeds are evil."

The manly stand taken by Messrs. Durham, Hodnett, Graham, Ellis, Lennon, McCubbins, Hare, Williams and Sanderlin, and others, whom we have not present space to enumerate, in behalf of the liberty of the Press, deserves all commendation. We shall make such further comments, as we may think proper, at another time. More we have neither time nor limits to say, this morning.

GEN. HANCOCK.—This distinguished and patriotic soldier may never expect to receive forgiveness at the hands of the Radicals for his respect to constitutional requirements and civil law. He has been singled out for persecution, and the veteran, whose fame, during the war, resounded all over the North, is now being reviled by those whose only part in the struggle was enacted at a safe distance from danger. If Congress should dare (but it dares do anything, in its desperation,) to strike down a soldier with so honorable a record, it is a consolation to know that persecution only builds up those whom it seeks to destroy, and that such an act will endear him the more to the people, who will, sooner or later, atone for the madness and injustice of their representatives.

Is Gen. Grant privy to this vainly-attempted degradation of a soldier, whose services in the "war for the Union" are so brilliant and unchallenged?

CONGRESS VS. THE SUPREME COURT.

It is almost beyond comprehension to what length the last of partizan power and party rancor malice will lead men, upon whom the partiality of the people has conferred high position. It cannot be that the Radical members of Congress have all run mad, or that all of them are stricken with judicial blindness, or that all of them have forgotten, or have become so morally obtuse or degraded as to disregard, the responsibilities of the oath they have taken to support and defend the Constitution of the United States Partyism, when allied with fanaticism, becomes oblivious of the character of the means, so the end is attained. It acts upon the rule, which is always called in to the aid of those who have become bankrupt in morals, that "the end justifies the means." Such seems to be the rule which dictates the action of Congress.

Few respectable Republican presses at the North swallow, without an effort, the new Congressional scheme of reconstruction. There does seem, except among the more unscrupulous, a shuddering at the possible consequences of placing Gen. Grant as the military Dictator of the South. And well there may be. But the proposed action of the Congress, in regard to the Supreme Court, startles every journal that has borne any character for principle and cool, serious thought. The New York Times does not conceal its abhorrence of so violent a proceeding, which may result in a very speedy destruction of the Court itself and of every vestige of Republican government in the country.

The time has been, when the Supreme Court of the United States challenged the respect and admiration of the world. Until very lately its decisions have been regarded as deserving universal consent and approval. Our people have looked upon the Court as the guardian of the Constitution and of the liberties of the people, above all the Departments of the government. But the proposed action of Congress would humiliate it to the low and contemptible office of being the mere endorser of its will, leaving the Congress free to interpret and enforce its own edicts.

We are glad to observe that the Conservative press, generally, regard this assault upon the Supreme Court as the most fearful step yet taken by Congress—menacing the foundations of the government itself, and only foreboding the ruin that must follow, if Radical rule triumphs.

The New York World treats this action with becoming seriousness. It says: "Our free institutions are completely subverted if Congress succeeds in this attempt to emancipate itself from the Constitution. If the Constitution is not to bind it, or not to bind it in any other sense than a party majority may choose to adopt, there is an end of constitutional government in this country. It will make no difference whether the pending constitutional amendment is ratified or not; no difference whether it is declared ratified by three fourths of the represented States or by three fourths of the whole number; no difference whether Grant or some other transient tool be made the agent of Congressional tyranny for the hour; no difference whether a shadow of State governments is permitted to remain in any of the States or not. The whole country will be subject to the arbitrary despotism of a body of men who, by excluding from Congress as many of their political opponents as they please, by disfranchising as many of the States as they please, by counting such of the electoral votes as they please, and by remodelling or gagging the courts of justice as they please, may convert what was once the freest, into the worst governed, country under the sun."

STANTON.

It is understood, from Washington, that the President has notified Gen. Grant that all future orders in reference to the army given by the Executive will be sent to him for execution, as Stanton will not be recognized as Chief of the War Department. It is also stated that the President intimated that if the officers of the War Department chose to allow Stanton office room in the War Department building, he had no objections.

By the Constitution, the heads of the Executive Departments are made the confidential advisers of the President. To suppose that any man will persist in retaining a confidential, advisory relation to another, when the latter has announced that he has no confidence in and will have no dealing with him, is so revolting to common sense and ordinary decency, that it could not be believed possible of any creature less degraded than this man Stanton.

The retention of the War Office, as intimated above, can be made so easily of no practical account, that no self-respecting man would remain in it; for it cannot be supposed for a moment that the President cannot enforce his orders through other hands than those of the Secretary, and, indeed, nullify the directions which his inferior may give. The President is commander-in-chief; the Secretary of War is but the chief executive clerk of the War Office, and the Executive is under no obligation to deal with or through him.

He may, if he sees fit, transact all business relating to the army through the army headquarters proper. He may, if he chooses, dispense with the officers of the War Department, and transfer their duties to any other Department. And indeed he may subject the General-in-Chief to a severe censure, if not court-martial, for turning over to another a military trust reposed in him by his immediate superior, without orders.

A CONVENTION LAW.—As the members and spectators were leaving the Capitol building, after adjournment, yesterday, a negro outsider was overheard to ask a negro delegate, what had been done in Convention during the morning session. The negro-loid delegate replied: "Nothing 'cept pass a law agin Pell & Gales' paper."

THE CONSERVATIVES IN THE CONVENTION.

The Richmond Whig speaks some words of excellent counsel to the few Conservatives in the Virginia Mongrel Convention, which are so applicable to our own condition, that we may well appropriate them. The small body of Conservatives in the Convention, which professes to represent North Carolina, cannot, in any measure, shape its action, (in the language of the Whig, with reference to Virginia,) but they can set all example of moderation, dignity and true patriotism, that will place them in pleasing contrast with the black and white Radical extremists. Were our advice asked, we would admonish them to avoid much speaking and to abstain from all excited demonstrations. In times like these, discretion is a jewel beyond all price, and indiscretion is to be avoided as the most dangerous of enemies. Constituted as the Convention is, it is not possible for the small band of Conservatives to do much positive good, but it might be easy for them to do harm. By imprudence in speech and action, they may possibly injure the whole State. Let the Radicals do all the mischief, and create all the excitement, and strive for all the notoriety. Let them have full rope and they will hang themselves.

HOW THEY LIE,—AND HOW THEY CATCH THEMSELVES.—One Rev. Mr. Lynch, who has been acting as one of the agents and emissaries of the Radical National Committee, in the South, lectured in Washington, on Tuesday evening. The Washington Express, a neutral paper, gives the following abstract of his lecture:

"He has spent some months in Mississippi—visited, in fact, 53 out of 61 counties.—In one breath he told us of the insecurity of the life and property of the negro, and in the next that they were rapidly acquiring wealth. At one time we were pointed to the intolerance of the whites, and at another we were assured that no court house was ever refused him, that courts were invariably adjourned to come out and hear him, and that he never was threatened with violence but once. At one moment we were assured of the strong aversion of the whites to the blacks, so strong as to break out in all sorts of oppression, and at another we had a glowing picture of the good feeling, the hand-shaking and congratulations between the races which prevailed during Christmas week."

SHOULD THE Senate follow the House in its usurpation of the Judicial Department of the government, the immediate result will be a veto,—and such a veto as will make the ears of the country ring. Suppose that the law is passed over the veto, the Court itself will then pass upon it. It is hardly to be supposed that the Supreme Court, an independent branch of the government, erected for the special purpose of passing on the acts of Congress, will agree that a bare majority of Congress shall pass a law, and then say that a majority of the Court shall not pass upon it. What then?

"THE FRIEND AND BROTHER."—Already we hear that some of the white Radicals in the so-called Convention have expressed their annoyance at the loquacity and officiousness of their sable confreres, who, with an assumption of something that looks more like superiority over their pale allies, than the promised equality, are very forward and conspicuous in all the proceedings of the "Convention." Possibly there may be a caucus held for the purpose of muzzling them. We hope that they will not stay muzzled. Are we not all equals and "brethren?"

THE NEW RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAMME.—The last radical Reconstruction law would make Gen. Grant absolutely supreme in ten States of the Union—give into his hands an empire richer than the whole Roman world was under Cæsar. It would practically establish Cæsarism as the result of a political strife waged nominally in the interest of popular rights. Radicalism has kept the game of reconstruction open since the end of the war, has prevented settlement, thrown away all chance for peace to secure, as it has constantly declared, the equal rights of all the people—to secure "governments republican in form" throughout the South; and now it comes at last to propose absolute despotism and a one man power. Here are republicanism and popular rights of the real Down East stamp. But what is the meaning of this? It is the effort of that party to shift its terrible burden of responsibility to other shoulders. It would throw on Grant the load it can no longer bear.—Then, if all comes out well, the radicals expect to claim the honor, while, if all goes wrong, they will point to Grant as the cause of ruin. But this game should be cut short in its very inception, and the President should take steps, if this bill becomes a law, to do what should long since have been done with regard to the other R. construction laws. He should have a case made to obtain the decision of the Supreme Court. Laws made by the proper law-making power must be accepted and acted upon until the Supreme Court has declared that their unconstitutional character renders them null; but when the unconstitutionality of a law is so broad, so defiantly distinct as to be obvious to all, there can be no excuse for delay in obtaining that formal declaration of the court that will justify the President in refusing to execute the law.—New York Herald.

BUTLER, the Beast, is in the city, and last night harangued a huge mass of ignorant and idle negroes. That he should have come, brazen and frontless as his presence here is, will surprise no one, for his audacity is known to be equal to any other quality of that comprehensive knavery which makes him the greatest villain of the age. But that there are persons here so indescribably base as to have desired him to come, and to fellowship with him and lionize him now that he is here, shows that we have in our midst elements of depravity and danger which were not generally suspected to exist. It may be well that we get knowledge of the fact in so unequivocal a manner, for we must now thoroughly understand the necessity for being always on our guard, and never for a moment relaxing in the effort to restore government to its true basis and society to its old condition.—Rich. Whig.

GOING THE WHOLE HOG.—Sumner will soon introduce a bill repealing the clause in the old reconstruction acts requiring the constitutions now being enacted by the Southern negroes to be submitted to a vote of the people.—Wash. Cor. Baltimore Gazette.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

THURSDAY, JAN. 16th, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Welker, of Guilford, at the request of the President.

Roll called and record of the last two days read, and, after a few alterations, approved.

In accordance with Mr. Heaton's resolution of yesterday, to appoint a Committee of two, from each judicial district, to report upon the best mode of proceeding to frame a Constitution, the President designated the following delegates, viz: Messrs. Nicholson, Jones, of Washington, Heaton, Rodman, Dowd, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Tourgee, Cox, Abbott, Hood, (negro,) Forkner, Hobbs, Jones, of Caldwell, Bradley, Gahagan and Garrett.

The Chair also designated the following Committee on rules of order, viz: Messrs. Sweet, Galloway, (negro,) Pool, Graham, of Orange, and Fullings.

Mr. Abbott called up his motion to submit Mr. Pool's resolution of yesterday (on the subject of legislation by the Convention,) to a Committee of three.

Mr. Pool opposed the reference, saying that he supposed that the somewhat bitter opposition it had met with, proceeded from its being misunderstood. At some length, he gave the motives that led to its introduction, and he combated the various objections urged against it,—concluding his remarks by a faithfully drawn picture of the idleness of the other constitutional Conventions, in consuming time in dealing with everything but the objects that called them together.

(At this moment, Messrs. Baker, of Edgecombe, Williams, of Sampson, and Garland, of Mitchell, by direction of the President came to the desk, took the oath and assumed their seats.)

Mr. Jones, of Washington, claimed the floor. Prefacing his remarks by a quotation from Shakespeare, he said that he was not prepared to enter into an important constitutional argument, but would endeavor to refute the principal arguments of the gentleman from Pasquotank (Mr. Pool,) in favor of the resolution. In regard to the power of the Convention, he alluded to Judge Gaston's opinions in regard to the sovereignty of Conventions. He claimed supreme authority; the military, he said, had performed its office, and left them untrammelled.

Mr. Tourgee opposed the resolution and its commitment, unless it was committed with definite instructions.

Harris, of Wake, (negro) was in favor of referring, as he wished time for consideration.

Mr. French, of Chowan, offered, as an amendment, to refer it to the Committee of sixteen already appointed. Agreed to.

By Mr. Jones, of Washington: A resolution inviting the clergymen of the city to open the services of this Convention with prayer. Adopted.

Mr. Abbott presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That no Reporter for any newspaper be allowed upon this floor, who treats the Convention, or any of its members, with any disrespect, but that they shall, in case of offence in this respect, be excluded from the floor of the Hall and from the galleries.

He went on to say (alluding to the Reporter of this paper,) that in one of the morning papers, a distinction had been made between the white and colored delegates. He read an extract from the Sentinel, in which the expression "Galloway, (negro)" occurred.

Mr. Durham, of Cleaveland, expressed his sorrow at seeing the resolution introduced. He knew he was in the minority, yet he had hoped that the other gentlemen would act fairly. He could'nt sit calmly by and see the liberty of the press assailed without entering his solemn protest against such a proceeding. The negro was a negro, and why not tell the truth and call him so?

He was interrupted by Mr. Abbott, who called his attention to the Sentinel's heading of "So called Convention."

Mr. Durham resumed that the people wanted to know how every body voted and who were negroes. He would enter his protest upon the record.

Hood, (negro,) wanted to know if there was a negro on the floor. He did not believe that there was.

Mr. Abbott, again on his feet, substantially reiterated what he had before said.

Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, read the extract in question and claimed that it was a fair and impartial one. In the midst of his remarks, he was interrupted by Mr. Sweet, of Craven, who arose to a point of order, viz: that Mr. H. was not confining himself to the question under debate. (The Chair sustained the point.)

Mr. H. resumed his remarks, protesting against such a high-handed outrage upon the freedom of the Press.

Mr. Ashley (himself the conductor of a Press) understood that the Reporters were here by the courtesy of the Convention, and they had a right to demand the same respect from them that would be due them under their own roofs. He wanted the Conservatives to understand that the Convention would protect itself from insult.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) did not care what the Press called him, but since so much party spirit was manifested, and certain editors were endeavoring to cast odium and insult upon the Convention, and would, if it were in their power, enslave the negro race again, he would vote for the resolution.

Tourgee, (white,) Galloway, (negro,) and various other Radicals, of both complexions, were rampant, successively.

Mr. Durham, in a few well chosen and eloquent remarks, warned the Radical element of the ruinious policy of entering into such a proscriptive course. The history of all Republican Governments dated their downfall from the commencement of such legislation. He, Mr. Durham, in giving utterance to these patriotic expressions, only echoed the sentiments of all the Conservative gentlemen on the floor. In closing his remarks he made known his intention again of entering his protest upon the record.

Mr. Abbott said a good deal about not wishing to proscribe any one or muzzle the Press,—he only wanted proper respect paid to them.

Mr. Moore, of Granville, moved to lay the resolution on the table, and, when attempting to make a few remarks, was decided to be out of order, upon a point brought by Harris, of Wake, (negro,) and sustained by the chair.

The yeas and nays, on the motion, were however called and resulted as follows:

AYES.—Andrews, Aydlott, Baker, Benbow, Blume, Bradley, Chilson, Daniel, Dowd, Durham, Ellis, Franklin, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Hare, Harris, of Franklin, Hobbs, Hodnett, King, of Lincoln, Lennon, McCubbins, Moore, Nicholson, Parker, Rich, Sanderlin and Williams, of Sampson.

NAYS.—Abbott, Ashley, Barnes, Bryan, Carey, Carter, Candler, Cherry, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Duckworth, Etheridge, Fisher, Forkner, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, Garrett, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hoffler, Hood, Hyman, Ing, Jones of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Lee, Logan, Long, Mann, Mayo, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Patrick, Parks, Petree, Pierson, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Read, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Robbins, Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stillwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker and Williams.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bradley, Daniel, Durham, Ellis, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Hare, Harris, of Franklin, Hobbs, Hodnett, Lennon, McCubbins, Moore, Nicholson, Parker, Sanderlin, and Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Durham then submitted the following protest:

"As the resolution is a step in restricting the liberty of the Press, and keeping information from the people, we protest against its passage:

(Signed)
P. DURHAM,
J. W. GRAHAM,
P. HODNETT,
JAS. R. ELLIS,
J. R. HARE,
ALEXANDER WILLIAMS,
THOS. SANDERLIN,
J. S. MCCUBBINS,
HAYES LENNON."

Mr. King, of Lenoir, offered an objection to entering the protest without the consent of the body.

Messrs. Durham and Ellis insisted their right to word their protest in language they pleased, and appealed to intelligent and fair minded men upon the floor to accord them an undeniable matter of justice.

The President announced his determination to reserve his decision until some future time, and so the matter dropped.

Mr. French moved to go into the election of Sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to adjourn; but withdrew it.

By Mr. King, of Lenoir:

A resolution fixing the hour of convening at 11 A. M.

Motion to adjourn being renewed, it was lost.

Mr. Abbott moved that the election of Sergeant-at-arms be gone into. The Radicals were agreed, but the Conservatives objecting to such a useless piece of extravagance,

After some further proceeding, a motion, by Mr. Morton, to adjourn was decided out of order by the President; but it being intimated to the President that a motion to adjourn is always in order, (!) the question was put, and the Convention decided to adjourn.

COMPOSITION OF THE SUPREME COURT.—As the Supreme Court has again emerged from its retirement, before the public view, in connection with important constitutional questions, our readers will doubtless be pleased to be informed as to its composition and political complexion. There are at present eight Judges, as follows: Salmon P. Chase, Ohio, Chief Justice; Nathan Clifford, Maine; Samuel Nelson, New York; Robert C. Grier, Pennsylvania; David Davis, Illinois; Noah W. Swayne, Ohio; Samuel F. Miller, Iowa; Stephen J. Field, California.

Their ages as far as can be ascertained are as follows: Chase, sixty; Grier, seventy-two on the 5th of March, 1868; Miller, forty-one; Clifford, sixty-five on the 18th of August, 1868; Nelson, about seventy; Field, forty-five; Davis, sixty; and Swayne, about fifty-five.

Of these, Chase, Miller, Swayne, Davis and Field were appointed by Lincoln, Grier by Polk, Clifford by Buchanan, and Nelson by Buchanan or Pierce.

Justices Nelson and Clifford are Democrats. Grier is claimed on the same side.—Justice Field is pronounced by a Republican authority as "a reconstructed Johnsonian." Judges Chase, Swayne and Miller are avowed Republicans, whilst Judge Davis is called "a very moderate Republican." The full number of Supreme Judges was nine, but the death of Judge Wayne, of Georgia, (Republican) created a vacancy which an act of Congress has provided shall not be filled by President Johnson.

A bill now pending before the House of Representatives proposes to require two-thirds of the Supreme Court to concur in pronouncing upon the constitutionality of any law of Congress.

The National Intelligencer concludes an elaborate review of the new military reconstruction bill as follows:

"It (the bill) can come to nothing without the co-operation of the General of the army. It all rests on him, whatever his reticence; reticence in this is a matter which might be misunderstood. At the first overt act, however slight—were it but to orally promise to accept the functions offered in it, after such a bill had been passed over the veto—the general of the army must be cast into jail to await his trial for treason to his country, unless the Chief Magistrate of that country is false to the trust of the people and his oath of office."

NEW ENGLAND POLITICS.—The Boston Post says "there is a strong undertow in the political tide in Maine, New Hampshire and Connecticut, more noticeable than in Vermont and Rhode Island, and working to more distinct and practical results than it so far has in Massachusetts."

The Post adds: "The people realize the necessity of a complete change in politics. The overthrow of the party in power will therefore be a popular overthrow, if any. There are no compromises to be tendered, and no half-concessions to be accepted. It is life or death for the nation. We are dying of a disease which there is no possible hope of conquering except by first ridding ourselves wholly of the cause."

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. OROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

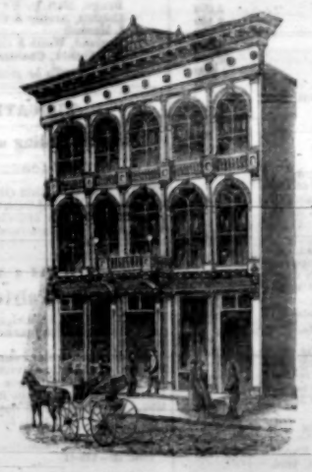
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION.

HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

AND HAS PAID OVER $3,500,000 TO WIDOWS.



Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & H. S. TUCKER & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1868.

Office of the Sentinel:—On the old "Register" now, next to the Court House.

CONVENTION.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Shell Lime and Fresh Ground Plaster: J. B. Hunter & Co., Grocers and Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va. These Fertilizers are both made in Portsmouth and are genuine and valuable. The high price of Guano and the scarcity of money must cause our farmers to economize in Fertilizers.

Hawkins vs. Hawkins.—Petition for Divorce: E. F. Foster, C. M. E., Ashe Co.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., give notice to all persons indebted to the late firm.

Meal, Flour, a splendid English Saddle and Bridle, &c.: W. H. Jones & Co.

$750 in Gold for sale: W. H. Jones & Co.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Charles Blue, colored, and Bartlett Hicks, colored, were up, charged with stealing Turkeys and Ducks. The property was recovered, and the parties turned over to the County Court.

John Jones, colored, charged with disorderly conduct in the streets of the City, in violation of a City ordinance, was arrested by the night police and lodged in the Guard House. Fined $5.

A number of U. S. Soldiers were arrested by the police, under Gen'l Order No. 57, Headquarters Military Post of Raleigh, lodged in the City Guard House, and turned over to the military authorities.

DRAMATIC.—We have only time, this morning, to call attention to Sargent's announcement, that he will visit Raleigh, on Monday, and give a series of brilliant entertainments with his talented Dramatic Company, which has been received with such great favor in Wilmington. Further notice hereafter.

TURNED OVER.—We learn that Gen. Canby has ordered Anthony Jackson, the colored soldier, late of the 40th. U. S. T., implicated in the murder of Anderson Selby, in this City, on the 22nd. ult., to be turned over to the civil authorities for trial. Since the murder, he has been in military custody.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—We are in debted to a friend at Trinity College for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel. We take this occasion to express our general gratification at the encouraging evidences of popular favor, which we have experienced of late, and particularly during the last week. We have added largely to our subscription lists for the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly issues. Our reduced terms put the Sentinel within reach of the masses, and we shall be grateful for every effort to extend its circulation. The stirring events of the times render a live newspaper indispensable to every one.

SUPREME COURT.—The following gentlemen, in addition to those heretofore announced, have been licensed to practice in the Superior Courts of the State, viz:

Clinton A. Cilley—Caldwell County.
James T. Tate—Mecklenburg Co.
Willis Bagley—Perquimans Co.
Theo. H. Hill, Esq., of this City, has been elected State Librarian for the ensuing year.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT AND GENERAL KNOCK-DOWN.—A number of the U. S. Soldiers were engaged in disorderly demonstrations on the street, in the vicinity of the Yarborough House, on yesterday. Upon being approached by Mr. Eatmond, one of the City Police, several of them made exhibition of fight, when he knocked two of them down in less time than it takes to tell it, and succeeded in securing one of them and conveying him to the Guard house.

SHIP KNEES.—An interesting communication on the subject of Ship Knees, the mode of their manufacture, &c., from J. B. Hunter & Co., General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va., will be found on our fourth page. We are always pleased to publish information that opens up new channels of industry for our people. We shall be glad to hear from our Portsmouth friends again.

WELDON HOTEL.—We learn, from the Roanoke News, that this valuable property has been leased by Mr. B. F. Cheatham, of this City, at the price of $5,005 per year for three years. The bidding was spirited, and there were many competitors. We suppose that Mr. Cheatham contemplates opening the Hotel at once. He is an enterprising gentleman, and will doubtless keep up the establishment in first-rate style.

RUMORS.—We have had a glimpse, on the streets, of Dr. Powell, of the "Fourth Ward," Washington City. The Dr. is known here, among the boys, by several odd names, which only serve to excite the risibles of people, when they get a sight of the Dr's. corporosity. It is very gravely said, that he is here, as usual, with some very serious talk from the Head-Centres of the Radical fathers at Washington, to the Radicals of the Convention, about hurrying up their work, or there will be a terrible muss in a short time. Something awful is expected from the Supreme Court, or Andy Johnson, or Gen. Grant, or somebody else. The bottom of the pardon-business, we believe, has dropped out, and there is nothing to do in that line now, and claims or disputes at Washington have rather gotten beyond the depths of the Dr. What next will turn up? Does not the Convention need an Agent at Washington, at the moderate sum of $4,000 per annum? It must make haste to secure the services of the gentleman from the "Fourth Ward."—Bid quick—once, twice, three-e-e-e times, or he's gone!

THE GOVERNMENT AND HOUSEHOLD OF THE GRAND RADICAL EMPIRE.—We presume we shall not violate Imperial Confidence by foreshadowing the character of the government and household of the new and magnificent empire proposed to be erected by the radicals upon the ruins of republican liberty in the United States. Here it is:—

His Imperial Highness Ulysses I.—Monarch of all he surveys.

Imperial Mouthpiece and Keeper of the Imperial Word and Conscience.—E. B. Washburne.

Minister of Confiscated Estates and General Factotum of the Imperial Mansion—Thaddeus Stevens.

Minister of Military Injustice—Edwin M. Stanton.

Minister of the Radical Rack and Political Joint Twister in General—George S. Boutwell.

Usher of the Black Rod—Fred. Douglass.

Lord High Chamberlain and Picker Up of all the Imperial Old Boots, Old Hats and Old Clo' Generally—John W. Forney.

Imperial Soft Impeacher and Knight Commander of the Order of the Sulphureous Bath—James M. Ashley.

Imperial Windmill and Chief of the Imperial Blowpipes—J. W. Hunnicutt.

Court Watchman—Henry Wilson.

Court Hangman—Ben. Wade.

Keeper of the Imperial Bedchamber—Charles Sumner.

Lady in Waiting—Anna Dickinson.—N. Y. Herald.

CONGRESS.

SENATE.—The Chair presented a communication from E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War, enclosing a list of volunteer officers now in service.

The cotton tax came up. A motion was made that the Senate recede from its amendment, but inserts a proviso exempting imported cotton from duty after July. The matter was postponed.

A bill re-organizing the Treasury Department was introduced and referred to the Finance Committee.

The deficiency appropriation for the reconstruction Acts, &c., was taken up and passed with some amendments.

HOUSE.—The House discussed the reconstruction bill until four, when they took recess to 7½ to-night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan 16, P. M.

Persons having affairs pending at the War Department say that no business has been done there during the past two days. It is confidently stated that should the President adopt any aggressive measures, a bill, already prepared, reorganizing the War Department and defining its duties and powers, will be rushed through.

MATTERS IN GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 16, P. M.

In accordance with instructions from General Meade, two officers from Headquarters have arrived here to investigate certain charges set forth in a petition presented to him of mal-administration on the part of the city authorities. The commission has no power to send for persons or papers, but requests the presence of the citizens, making the charges, to substantiate the alleged mal-administration.

The present Mayor and Council were appointed by Pope, and the object of the petition to Gen. Meade is to have them removed and the former Mayor and Council reinstated.

A private dispatch from Milledgeville states that Gen. Ruger and Capt. Rockwell have taken charge of the Executive and Treasury Departments of Georgia, in accordance with Gen Meade's order. The Treasury is empty—the funds having been removed.

Gov. Jenkins is still in Milledgeville, but is expected to arrive in Augusta, his home, in a few days.

THE SITUATION IN ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Jan. 16, P. M.

A meeting of the leading citizens of Alabama has been in session here two days. After a calm and patient deliberation, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend to the people of Alabama, opposed to the Constitution proposed by the Convention, lately in session at Montgomery, to abstain from voting at all at the elections to be held on the 4th and 5th of February, either upon the question of ratifying or rejecting that Constitution, or for candidates for offices under it.

2. That we also recommend to the opponents of the said proposed Constitution, that they form and maintain effective political organizations among themselves, in every portion of the State, until they are delivered from the perils which are impending.

The 30th. day of January was recommended to the people of the State as a day of fasting and prayer to Almighty God to deliver the people of Alabama from negro dominion.

An address was also adopted, setting forth to the people of Alabama, and the world, the reasons prompting the white people of Alabama to abstain from the polls.

RICHMOND COUNTY.—We are glad to see that the Conservatives of Richmond county have effected an organization by the appointment of an Executive Committee. We have received the following appointments from Mr. W. McNair, Chairman of a meeting held at Spring Hill, on the 28th of December, 1867, under a resolution adopted at that meeting, authorizing the appointment of a County Executive Committee:

Little's Mills—Capt. B. F. Little, Homer Lagrand, Wm. B. Hanback.
Mineral Spring—Wm. Townsend, Daniel B. Nicholson, Trustian Boshvick.
Rockingham—John W. Cole, Walter F. Leak, John W. Leak.
Wolf Pit—Thomas C. Leak, Col. H. Harrington, Dr. C. Carrington.
Williamson's—Noah Gibson, Dr. M. Morrison, Malcom McNeill.

A Washington letter-writer attributes the following views to Alexander H. Stephens, and they are so entirely well founded that we have no doubt the gentleman quoted is correctly reported:

"Radical emissaries from the North have sown the seeds of evil dissension with a terrible earnestness, and the dismetric opposition of the races now visible all over the South must, in the very nature of things, lead, at some time or other, to fearful collisions. The inevitable result, Mr. Stephens declares, as a dispassionate observer, forces itself irresistibly on his attention. A war of races, desired by some and indifferently heeded by others, is, to his mind, a consequence as sure to happen, under the radical method of reconstruction, as it is impossible to avoid, if the precedents of history or the impulses that control human nature be taken into account."

Kittrell's Springs Female College,

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

SHIP KNEES.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., Jan. 14, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—As times like these, it is the duty of every one to develope all the hidden resources within his reach, and they are many. The forests of North Carolina abound in wealth, unknown to its owners. Your oak timber is a rich mine of wealth, if properly studied and worked.

In a previous letter we gave directions for making Staves. To this business we would have the Stave-getter add that of making Ship Knees. Many of your readers, doubtless, have no idea as to the demand for and high prices which they command.

You will, no doubt, be doing the people of your State good service by publishing the following information in relation to this business, which we have obtained from the Inspector of Lumber at the Gosport Navy Yard, and may be relied upon as being correct:

Siding	Length of Arm.	Length of Body.
6 inches	3 ft. 3 to 3 ft. 6 in.	4 ft. 8 to 5 ft. 0 in.
7 "	4 " 0 to 4 " 3 "	5 " 4 to 5 " 10 "
8 "	4 " 5 to 4 " 8 "	6 " 0 to 6 " 6 "
9 "	4 " 9 to 5 " 0 "	6 " 6 to 7 " 0 "
10 "	5 " 0 to 5 " 3 "	7 " 4 to 7 " 8 "
11 "	5 " 3 to 5 " 6 "	7 " 9 to 8 " 3 "

Price per inch for W. O. knees sq. and inequar

6 inches $1.00 per inch,	$ 6, 0
7 " $1.65 " "	11.55
8 " $2.05 " "	16 40
9 " $2.35 " "	21.15
10 " $2 80 " "	28 00
11 " $3.42 " "	37 62

The above prices are for limb knees square and inequare and the prices for root knees will be 6 per cent less than those to be paid for limb knees. Outsquare knees, both limb and root, will be 20 per cent less in price than for square and inequare. Knees formed by the limb and body of the tree above the limb will not be received, nor knees more than 16 degrees outsquare.

The length of the arm will be measured from the centre of the body, and the moulding size of the end of the body must be equal to the nett siding of the knee.

Three-fourths of the diameter of the arm at the two-thirds of its length of the body of the knee to be considered the nett siding of the knee, and on that siding the price will be based.

No addition will be made to the prices for fractional parts of an inch.

Portsmouth, Va.

CRANBERRIES.—Why are not these berries cultivated in large quantities in Eastern North Carolina? Thousands of acres are admirably adapted to the growth of this valuable article, and tens of thousands of dollars profit might annually be derived from their sale.

There are several localities in the State where the crop, without cultivation or attention, proves profitable to the gatherers. Like all other fruits, care and cultivation will improve the quality and increase the quantity raised.

HOPS.—While calling attention to various articles which invite the husbandman to fields of profit hitherto unattended by him, we should be remiss in duty if we should fail to mention the cultivation of Hops. Wherever the soil is suitable, few crops are more remunerative. A field once set in them lasts for years, care being only necessary to keep the stakes on which they run in order, and attention given to the gathering of the crop and preparing it for market.

One familiar with the culture of Hops informs us that first rate land will produce more than half a ton to the acre, and the market price ranges from 40cts. to 60cts. per pound. Here is margin sufficient for profit. Let the experiment be made and the result noted.

At many homesteads in this county we suppose there is one or more hop vines.—Will some one who knows tell us of their productiveness?

THE SUMACH.—Among the valuable articles that should engage the attention of the people of this section the cultivation of the Sumach stands high. The leaves properly prepared (dried in the shade) and ground in any ordinary mill are used by the Calico makers and command prices ranging from $75 to $225 per ton.

Would it not be well for those, who have lands where the Sumach grows indigenously, to aid nature in propagating it, and to add to the productions of the soil a new article from which to derive revenue for their depleted pockets?

Capt. Dillingham would take pleasure in giving information on this subject to all who may desire to have it.

RICE.—Too little of this article is raised in this vicinity. One third of the human race use rice almost exclusively for food. It is cheap and nutritious and should be cultivated abundantly the present year. Extensive plantations are out of the question here, on account of a deficiency of the right kind of labor; but every farmer and planter can raise a large patch of it. Since the war, it has commanded a high price, four or five times as much as before, and the consumption of it, in this section, has, to a great extent, ceased. Not twenty miles from Newbern the past year, a planter realized a crop of rice equal to $150 per acre, on land immediately contiguous to his cotton crop, which brought him one fourth of that amount. Cultivate some rice, planters of North Carolina, in 1868.

VINEYARDS.—Eastern North Carolina is destined at no distant day to rival California and the vine clad hills of France, Germany and Italy in the number, fertility and value of its vineyards. In climate, in soil and in the variety of its native grapes, it is hardly surpassed, and it requires but energy, and the skilled labor of man to make it truly a land of vineyards.

When it is thoroughly understood that the crop is not only profitable, but very certain, less liable to failure perhaps than any other, we may hope to see that attention paid to this subject which its importance demands.—Western Journal of Commerce.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 184.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and if a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be, devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judge may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
